

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Buy a Brownie kodak, $1, at Babbitt Bros.

Jacob Salzman, of Williams, was a business visitor here Wednesday.

A stock of Butterick patterns at Babbitt Bros' dry-goods depot. 23tf

Mrs. Chas. McKinney left Monday on a visit to her former home in Canada.

The Flagstaff Mutual Telephone company has placed a new directory with its patrons.

Parties desiring cedar posts in any quantity can be supplied by addressing the SUN office. 28tf

Frank Owenby, the cattleman, was here this week. He reports cattle on the range as being in good condition.

Flagstaff lodge B. P. O. E., No. 499, will hold its annual election of officers on Tuesday night of next week.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

Babbitt Bros., Equitable Life Assurance society and W. O. Cramer have new advertisements in this issue of the Sun.

Thos. Hall, the well known piano tuner, will be in Flagstaff the first of next week. Mr. Hall will call on his numerous patrons here.

There will be a meeting of the Territorial supreme court today in Phoenix and it is expected opinions in several cases will be made by the court.

A. E. Frankforter and I. F. Wheeler returned this week from a trip to Phoenix. They brought back with them a number of horses, which they wintered in the Salt River valley.

S. T. Elliott, manager of Babbitt Bros. dry goods department, returned Sunday from a trip to the eastern markets. During his absence he visited the cities of St. Louis, Chicago and New York.

Tuesday, March 29, I will have in my spring millinery; my pattern hats and ready to wear novelties are more than ever stylish, and I promise an unusually attractive display.

MISS WYNNE.

James A. Barwick, official in charge of the U. S. weather bureau at this place, has been transferred to the station at Independence, California, and expects to leave as soon as his successor arrives to relieve him. Mr. Barwick has been in the weather service for thirty years and is a competent and valuable official.

LEVI STRAUSS & CO'S
copper riveted overalls for men who toll

Read Babbitt Bros. ad. about millinery.

Eric Denver, of Bellemont, is in town today.

C. A. Cover, the Williams druggist, was here Tuesday.

Eastman kodaks and photo supplies at Eastern prices at Babbitts'.

L. S. Williams, bookkeeper for Dr. E. B. Perrin, spent the week here.

For sale—5x7 Nemo camera, with case and tripod. Inquire at Sun office.

F. H. Donahue returned Thursday from a four weeks' visit to Los Angeles, Cal.

Frank Rhodes, who has been spending the winter in Phoenix, returned Thursday.

I. E. Turnell returned yesterday from the Verde valley, where he has been spending the winter.

Leave your orders for J. S. Wright's express with B. Hoch. All orders promptly attended to. Telephone 79.

No. 1221 drew the prize at Timmerhoff's. If the ticket is not presented by April 1, 1904, another drawing will take place.

John Loy, who has been at Altman during the winter, was in town this week, returning to his ranch Thursday.

A. T. Cobb and wife left this morning for Los Angeles, where Mrs. Cobb who is afflicted with rheumatism, will remain until she recovers.

Mr. M. Rudd returned this week from Phoenix, where he has been the past three months and has accepted a position in the store of Weatherford & Vail.

Go to Coffin's for eastern apples, cream cheese, Belle Springs butter, fresh vegetables, chickens live or dressed, turkeys, fresh crackers of all kinds.

District Attorney E. M. Doe left Tuesday for Phoenix, where he will spend the week attending to legal business before the district and supreme courts.

The Albuquerque Journal says Edward Grunsfeld, general agent of the Equitable Life Assurance society, is quite seriously ill and is said to be threatened with appendicitis.

Levi Chubbuck, inspector of Indian schools, and wife were taken to Tuba city this week by W. H. Pierce. Mr. Chubbuck expects to visit all the schools in the Moqui and Navajo reservations.

The town council have appointed the following officers of election for the town election to be held on Monday, April 4, 1904: Judges—H. C. Hibben, J. H. Lind, J. S. Amundsen. Clerks—A. E. Douglass, R. H. Jones, John Broderick, Wm. Neville. Marshal—Asa Clark.

John Sheehan received a telegram Thursday from Mrs. J. R. Treat that his wife had been injured by falling from a street car. The extent of her injury has not been learned. Mr. Sheehan left Thursday for Los Angeles, where his wife and mother have been stopping for some time.

There were no tardies in the fifth grade of the public school this month and the following pupils were never absent: Marvin Francis, Rosa Harrington, Marguerite Harden, Lura Kinsey, Lena Lewis, Esther Taylor, Ella Vail, Harry C. Hibben, jr., Paul E. Keller, Robt. J. Kidd, jr., Hazel Jurden, Collis Mayflower and Mary Black.

BABBITT BROS.'

Millinery Opening.

Wednesday, March 30th, and following days.

We invite you to call and see our mammoth display of

FINE MILLINERY,

personally selected from the greatest market in America—New York City.

Everything we will show is the very height of fashion, you can depend on this. Come and see and be pleased.

BABBITT BROTHERS.

Bowling Contest.

The bowling contest at the Commercial club alleys this week resulted as follows:

Saturday, March 19—

				Ave.
Devine.....	111	138	115	121½
*C. J. Babbitt.....	134	158	140	144
DuChain.....	110	114	126	116½

*By Sliker.

Total pins, 1146.

Blair.....	167	156	169	164
J. Verkamp.....	183	160	112	152
*Amundsen.....	135	121	136	130½

*By Robinson.

Total pins, 1340.

Wednesday, March 23—

G. Babbitt.....	153	164	149	155½
Pollock.....	112	141	121	124½
L. Verkamp.....	156	134	106	130½

Total pins, 1236.

Powers.....	200	196	165	187
D. Babbitt.....	142	170	154	155½
Quinlan.....	137	99	134	123½

An election for school trustees for this district is in progress today. There is but one candidate, C. A. Keller. The retiring trustee is P. R. Weatherford.

The Copper Queen smelter at Douglass is expected to blow in today. The smelter is of 2,000 tons daily capacity and will shortly be producing bullion to the limit of its capacity.

F. M. Clute, who has traveled through Arizona with J. G. Albright for the purposes of organizing lodges of Red Men, died recently in Mohave county near Kingman. Deceased has a family residing at Las Vegas, New Mexico.

Mrs. D. R. Prime arrived here the first of the week from Flagstaff. Yesterday, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Raudebaugh, she departed for a month's visit at Willard's ranch northeast of Jerome on Oak creek. Dave says his wife couldn't stay here to see him defeated in his race for town marshal, and that he hopes to surprise her on their return by apprising her of his election.—Williams News.

J. C. Mitchell, line repairer for the Western Union Telegraph company, returned last Saturday from a two months' trip to Mexico. He was accompanied by Geo. E. Sullivan, agent for the Santa Fe at this place, and they spent their time in Mexico City and vicinity. Mr. Sullivan left Mexico City last week for Peru and it will probably take him two months to make the tour of that South American state.

GOSNEY & PERKINS' BANK

NOT INCORPORATED

Flagstaff, Arizona.

We invite the banking business of the public, and promise to each patron the greatest liberality consistent with conservative banking principles.

INTEREST PAID ON TIME AND SAVINGS DEPOSITS.

F. W. PERKINS, Cashier.
E. S. GOSNEY, Manager.

NEW BARBER SHOP

I have opened a Barber Shop in the Loy Building, and solicit the patronage of citizens of Flagstaff, and promise my patrons the best of service known to the Tonsorial Art. Courteous treatment accorded to all patrons. : : : : : Everything new and clean. : Remember the place and give me a call. : : : : :

W. O. CRAMER.

WHITE BRONZE MONUMENTS.

ED. WHIPPLE, Agent,
Flagstaff. Arizona.